Nominate a Heritage Asset

1. WHAT IS IT? Is it one of the following?	Tick
a building or group of buildings
a monument or site (an area of archaeological remains or a structure other than a building)	√
a place (e.g. a street, park, garden or natural space)
a landscape (an area defined by visual features or character, e.g. a city centre, village, suburb or field system)

2. WHY IS IT INTERESTING? Is it interesting in any of the following ways?	Tick / Rank
Historic interest – a well documented association with a person, event, episode of history, or local industry	√
Archaeological interest – firm evidence of potential to reveal more about the human past through further study
Architectural interest – an example of an architectural style, a building of particular use, a technique of building, or use of materials
Artistic interest – It includes artistic endeavour to communicate meaning or use of design (including landscape design) to enhance appearance
What is it about the asset that provides this interest? They are old mile stones on the A259/ Roman Road, marking the distances to Chichester and Havant. They probably date from the C19 although no specific information can be found.

3. WHY IS IT LOCALLY VALUED? Is the interest of the asset valued locally for any of the following reasons?	Tick / Rank
Association: It connects us to people and events that shaped the identity or character of the area	√
Illustration: It illustrates an aspect of the area's past that makes an important contribution to its identity or character
Evidence: It is an important resource for understanding and learning about the area's history
Aesthetics: It makes an important contribution to the positive look of the area either by design or fortuitously
Communal: It is important to the identity, cohesion, spiritual life or memory of all or part of the community
How is the asset locally valued as heritage? Southbourne stretches 3 miles along the A259 and these are a significant land marks. They were once probably the only local signs.

4. WHAT MAKES ITS LOCAL SIGNIFICANCE SPECIAL? Do any of the following features make the heritage significance of the asset stand out above the surrounding environment?	Tick
Age ... Is it particularly old, or of a date that is significant to the local area?
Rarity ... Is it unusual in the area or a rare survival of something that was once common?
Integrity ... Is it largely complete or in a near to original condition?	√ 2
Group value ... Is it part of a group that have a close historic, aesthetic or communal association?
Southbourne's identity ... Is it important to the identity or character of the city or a particular part of it? How does this contribute to its value? Considered important to the residents and at their request the Parish Council recently restored the lettering. The original lettering was removed during WW2 as mile stones and sign posts were considered to be of assistance to an invading army.	√ 1
